East Village Group Menus

At East Village we pride ourselves on the quality of food we offer. All of our foods are prepared freshly in house and you can really taste the difference. When you compare our freshly prepared food to the standard offering in other bars (Processed frozen foods) you realise that East Village really are delivering quality at a very competitive price.

We have a team of 12 chefs that work to prepare foods seven days a week to ensure the highest quality and freshness. Our beef, chicken and seafood are delivered 6 days per week to meet our chef's exacting standards.

We can tailor our offerings to suit your budget & dietary requirements and we have a large selection of vegetarian & coeliac friendly dishes available.

Attached you will find a sample of some of our offers, please call to discuss your preferences. We also encourage you to visit the premises to discuss your party requirements and see where you will be seated and discuss entertainment and decorating requirements.

Finally please remember if you are hosting a party in your home we would be happy to quote for providing catering services.
